Descendant Speaks Out

*If there is no struggle,
there is no progress.*
~Frederick Douglass

*If you want to lift yourself
up, lift up someone else.*
~Booker T. Washington

Kenneth B. Morris, Jr.

Kenneth B. Morris, Jr. is descended from two of the most important names in American history: he is the great-great-great grandson of Frederick Douglass and the great-great grandson of Booker T. Washington.

Mr. Morris is also President of the Frederick Douglass Family Foundation, an organization he and his mother, Nettie Washington Douglass, founded to honor and preserve the legacy of their famous ancestor; the great abolitionist, orator, author, newspaper editor and statesman.

Mr. Morris reclaims the activist role fashioned by his prominent forefathers and brings compassionate leadership to modern struggles. With the dual lineage of the "Great Orator" and the "Great Educator", Mr. Morris has proven charismatic both in the streets and at the podium.

Mr. Morris addresses a variety of topics including: Modern-day slavery/Human trafficking, Black History, Diversity, Woman's Rights issues, World Poverty and International Human Rights. His varied public appearances have included; large business presentations, educational institutions, show productions and keynote addresses to charitable organizations.

Mr. Morris is available for special events and speaking engagements. Speeches are customized for the occasion. Please visit his website at www.kbm.jr.com and click the "Check Availability" link, or contact Robert Benz at 702.523.4845 for more information.
